(b) if so, the modus operandi of the racket;

(c) the number of persons arrested in this con nee tin; and

(d) the further action Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHENNAMANENI VIDYA SAGAR RAO): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Fake drugs were seized by Delhi Police from Bhagirath Place twice during the year 2001. Ten persons were arrested in connection with these two cases. The modus operandi of the accused persons in the first case was to ascertain the batch number of the medicine manufactured by the reputed drug companies and thereafter manufacture similar looking spurious drugs before packaging the same in identical packs at automatic plants. These spurious medicines were later supplied to places like Delhi, Meerut, Varanasi and Patna. In the second case the accused persons were authorised stockists of drugs who used to mix the spurious drugs alongwith the original before their distribution to the retailers.

(d) It is the constant endeavour of the Government to keep a watch on the activities of spurious drug dealers. The police personnel are always on the lookout to collect intelligence about such activities and find out the source of supply of such drugs.
